If a contemplated bill passes the Legislature, all fishermen who fish in Ohio for commercial purposes will be obliged to remove the eggs from all fish before they place them on the market. The bill will be presented by the State Fish and Game Commission to collect the eggs from each fishing tag and in this manner the hatcheries are kept up.

The following item going the rounds is the sort of philosophy that ought to be preached from every pulpit and every newspaper: "It is vulgar to quarrel, so men and women of refined mind usually avoid it. There is so much to ignore in life that it does not pay to see too much. I do not advise an attitude that will invite abuse, for it is human nature to despise cowardice. Whimpering is perfectly exasperat-ing, in man or beast, but an easy tolerance, an attitude of living above petty annoyances, is likely to command some degree of respect.
It reminds one of the dignity which carries a big St. Bernard through a street of yelping dogs."

The melancholy days are come, the saddest of the year.
Of waiting retards, and naked woods, and meadows brown

Heap'd to the hollows of the grove the withered leaves

They rustle in the eddying gust and to the rabbit's tread.

Say, Hunters, can't you just fairly FEEL that wind and see the rabbit scurrying over the fields? It's a little too early yet, but now's a good time to get your

DEATH CLAIMS

Oldest Man in Mason County—
George W. Creekbaum Passes Away at Dover, Aged 102

George Washington Creekbaum died at the home of his son, T. C. Creekbaum, in Dover, yesterday afternoon at 3:20 o'clock, in his 102d year.

He was the oldest living pioneer of early days and was the oldest man in Mason county and may have been the oldest in the State.

He was born in Brown county, Ohio, June 11th, 1808, and would have been 102 years old next June. He settled in Dover with his parents in 1818, when that town was first laid out, and his father received lot No. 1 on Front street from Arthur Fox for helping to clear the timber off the land, and he died 91 years after within a dozen yards of lot No. 1. Up to a few months ago he was able to go about and was quite strong mentally and physically.
He died from senile decay.

He had seven children, four of whom are living: Thomas C., Ralph and Mary of Dover and William, who resides in Morgan county.
The latter is 73 years old.

Deceased leaves several great-grandchildren.

Burial tomorrow afternoon in Locust Grove Cemetery at Dover.

They are very long with several inches of fabric extending below the boned portion of the garment. At first sight this extreme length may suggest discomfort, but the contrary is true, as the unboned section entirely envelops the soft flesh, drawing the hips down in the most comfortable way. Models to suit every figure at prices varying from Warner's at $1 to Redferns at $6. Fittings given without charge.

The Government paid out in pensions in the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1909, $161,973,703, which the Commissioner declares is the largest amount ever disbursed for pensions in one year. Summarized, the report shows these facts: Number of pensioners at the beginning of the year, 961,687; number of new pensioners added to the roll, 46,088; pensioners on roll at close of the year, 946,194, a net decrease of 5,493. Survivors of the Civil War on the roll now number 593,961.

Let Me Tell You Something

A woman who is sick and suffering, and won't at least try a medicine which has the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, is to blame for her own wretched condition.

There are literally hundreds of thousands of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over thirty years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering.

Read what these women say:

Camden, N. J. — "It is with pleasure that I send my testimonial for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, hoping it may induce other suffering women to avail themselves of the benefit of this valuable remedy.
"I suffered from pains in my back and side, sick headaches, no appetite, was tired and nervous all the time, and so weak I could hardly stand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman—and this valuable medicine shall always have my praise."—Mrs. W. P. Valentine, 902 Lincoln Ave., Camden, N. J.

Erie, Pa. — "I suffered for five years from female troubles, and at last was almost helpless. I tried three doctors but they did me no good. My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has made me well and strong. I hope all suffering women will just give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, for it is worth its weight in gold."—Mrs. J. P. Endlich, R. F. D. 7, Erie, Pa.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering from the same trouble.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.
If the slightest trouble appears which you do not understand, write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice—it is free and always helpful.

Back

An aching back is instantly relieved by an application of Sloan's Liniment.
This liniment takes the place of massage and is better than sticky plasters. It penetrates—without rubbing—through the skin and muscular tissue right to the bone, quickens the blood, relieves congestion, and gives permanent as well as temporary relief.
Here's the Proof.
Mr. JAMES C. LEE, of 1100 9th St., S.E., Washington, D.C., writes: "Thirty years ago I fell from a scaffold and seriously injured my back. I suffered terribly at times; from the small of my back all around my stomach was just as if I had been beaten with a club. I used every plaster I could get with no relief. Sloan's Liniment took the pain right out, and I can now do as much ladder work as any man in the shop, thanks to Sloan's Liniment."

Sloan's Liniment

Mr. J. P. EVANS, of Mt. Airy, Ga., says: "After being afflicted for three years with rheumatism, I used Sloan's Liniment, and was cured sound and well, and am glad to say I haven't been troubled with rheumatism since. My leg was badly swollen from my hip to my knee. One-half a bottle took the pain and swelling out."
Sloan's Liniment has no equal as a remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia or any pain or stiffness in the muscles or joints. Price, 25c., 50c. and $1.00.

I urge every one suffering from any stomach derangement, indigestion or dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the distinct understanding that I will refund their money without question or formality, if after reasonable use of this medicine they are not satisfied with the results. Your Nerves

Ask your doctor if alcoholic stimulants are not often very disastrous when given to nervous people. He will tell you why.

J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Your nerves must be fed with pure, rich blood, or there will be trouble. Poorly fed nerves are weak nerves; and weak nerves mean nervousness, neuralgia, headaches, debility. Weak nerves need good food, fresh air, and Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla.

Kindred Societies Open Doors and Extend Hospitalities to Visitors

Owing to a change in program the opening of the business session of the Kentucky State Reunion Association of Elks at Washington Opera-house was postponed from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. yesterday, and in consequence the attendance was not as large as it should have been.

The interior of Maysville's Playhouse, with its elaborate decorations from dome to stage, never presented a more beautiful appearance, and the only thing lacking was a full house to enjoy the delightful music rendered by Weber's Band and the flow of wit and oratory that was served to the fortunate ones present.

The President of the Association, Hon. C. D. Pearce, was Master of Ceremonies, and right royally did he acquit himself as the Channcy Dewey of the occasion.

Following prayer by Chaplain J. E. Marret of Louisville, Hon. Thomas D. Slattery delivered the address of welcome and spoke in part as follows—

We are not only pleased to have you with us, but Maysville feels that it has been complimented far beyond its deserts in being selected as the place in which the initial meeting of the Reunion should be held. We realize that upon the success of this first meeting depends the future of the reunion movement, and that competent hands are required to guide it along the paths which lead to the desired results, and we are deeply conscious of the honor which has been bestowed upon Maysville Lodge in selecting it for this important task. We have an abiding confidence in her ability to succeed, and with your help we shall bring this meeting to such a glorious conclusion that it will ever remain a brilliant example of the manifold social benefits to be derived from these reunions. Maysville welcomes you most cordially. We know that you are the representatives of the best manhood in Kentucky. We know that you have been nurtured and sustained by the great principles of our Order—charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity—a d that in your acts you are guided and animated by the merits of your obligations, and we take you into the bosom of our families with the supreme confidence that as knightly Kentuckians and true Elks there will be no word, act or deed to mar the social pleasures which have been arranged for your entertainment. We are sure that every Elk who is with us upon this occasion will demean himself as becomes a true gentleman, and that when the festivities have closed that we can say of each of you as was said of a great Roman: "He was gentle, and the elements were so mixed in him that nature might stand up and say to all the world, 'This is a man.'"

If it should happen that it's in the contemplation of the charm of the ladies you find your greatest delight we are thankful enough to assure you that you shall not go away disappointed. Whilst our ladies are not Elks I can assure you that they are all dears. Upon inspection you will find that our ladies are fair and fairer than that fair word. In their exquisite range of form, style, expression, we hope they will please your tastes, no matter how diversified. We have the sun-capped, golden crowned and raven-hued. We have those with the great big eyes of baby blue, into the trusting depths of which you can look and there behold a soul as pure and white as the snow-capped summit of Pike's Peak. We have maidens of brown, gazelle-like eyes, whose look fascinate, hypnotize and holds its object in subject obedience. Of the beauty of our women we can say, with Shakespeare, that time cannot wither nor custom stale their infinite variety.

Our doors stand ajar, and you are as welcome as the flowers in May. Have a good time, boys; enjoy yourselves; and we hope that when you come to leave us that you will feel as completely under the spell of our hospitality that each of you will say, as did Sir John Falstaff, "If the rascals have not given me medicines to make me love them, I'll be hanged. I have drunk medicines."

Again I welcome you to our city. The following is an excerpt of the address of Past Grand Exalted Ruler Robert Brown of Louisville in response to the welcoming address—straight goods and the blend of Kentucky hospitality, there is nothing half so toothsome and tempting this side the pearly portals. There is a fine art and a delicate distillation and a clinking charm, mixed and minted and "juiced" into cur, which all the wealth of the world outside is powerless to purchase. Life and its joys are just a bit sweeter with us than anywhere else. Hearts are just a bit pryer and truer. The hand-clasp of friendship means more to us than to others. And as for Kentucky's daughters, angels are sainted fair to faintly resemble their witching loveliness. It's good to be a Kentuckian; there is nobility in the very name of Kentucky, and to be a Kentuckian, and live in Kentucky, and to sip the sweets of Kentucky hospitality, as Maysville knows how to him the howl and loot the larder, is a bliss for the gods to envy enough to drive an anchorite to indigestion and the jims.

Those occupying seats on the stage were C. D. Pearce, President of the Association; Dennis Dandon, First Vice-President, of Paris; J. A. Hart, Second Vice-President, of Henderson; E. J. Duncanson, Third Vice-President, of Hopkinsville; W. M. O'Bryan, Secretary, of Owensboro; D. R. Freeman, Treasurer, of Richmond; J. E. Marret, Chaplain, Louisville, and William Neal and M. T. Shine of Covington and H. G. Johnston of Paducah, Executive Committee.

After adjournment the visitors wended their way to the handsome home of the Knights of Columbus, where they were entertained in a royal manner, being wine and dined and waited on by Maysville's fairest daughters. Cigars and flowers were also dispensed. An entertainers, Maysville Council No. 1377 will hold a full band with the best of them.

The reception from 4 to 6 at the palatial home of President C. D. Pearce in West Second street and the dance last night in Masonic Temple were features of the three days' sojourn of the visiting Elks in this city that will long remain a pleasant memory.

The music by Weber's orchestra was the sweetest and most entrancing heard here and delighted all.

Last night between 10 and 11 o'clock four shots were fired in rapid succession and two more at short intervals in Market street between Third and Fourth. There is nobly reported dead or wounded this morning and it is supposed to have been the doings of some bilious person.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Sixty thousand Americans emigrated to Canada in the last fiscal year, each taking an average of $1,000 in stock, cash and effects, or $60,000,000 in all. These emigrants are nearly every one of them experienced agriculturists and none has been without capital. Their numbers exceed the total immigration from Great Britain.

BURDENS LIFTED

From Maysville Backs—Relief Proved By Lapse of Time.

Backache is a heavy burden; Nervousness wears one out; Rheumatic pain; urinary ills; All are kidney burdens—Daily effects of kidney weakness. No use to cure the symptoms; Relief is but temporary if the cause remains. Cure the kidneys and you cure the cause. Relief comes quickly—comes to stay. Doan's Kidney Pills cure kidney ills. Prove it by your neighbor's case. Here's Maysville testimony: The story of a permanent cure: William H. Paul, 333 East Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"For two years I had pains in my back and other troubles, caused by disordered kidneys. When Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention I began their use and they soon brought me relief. I cheerfully endorse this remedy as one that lives up to the claims made for it."

The above statement was given on December 13th, 1904, and on February 6th, 1908, Mr. Paul added:

"My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills has not changed since I first recommended them. My cure has been lasting and I am now in good health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ROYAL BLUE

For Laundry Use.

Is a very high grade of bluing and specially prepared with the utmost care. Gives clothes a bright, fresh shade, with a beautiful luster. It does in no way streak the clothes, as these cheap, inferior grades do. Many of the finest laundries throughout the country use this bluing daily with perfect satisfaction. You will like it. One ten cent powder, put into a quart of clear fresh water, will make you as much excellent bluing, in liquid form, as you pay 50 cents for, and of a much better quality. You can make half a pint of excellent blue ink by dissolving the powder in half pint of water. Prepared by
